LOT 2 - Frosted Glass Hurricane Boudior Double Globe Lamp

Description

Satin frosted glass Gone with the Wind Hurricane Boudior electric lamp. Features stunning glass flower daisy and leaves detail, warm white bulb color, brown vintage electric cable & aged brass buckets. This piece is in great condition for its age with no chips, cracks or repairs and both bulbs are fully functioning. It does have patina on the brass detail, ware on the turn switch and some ware and scuffs to the frosted glass finish

(see pictures). The double globes can either be stiched on together or individually for a more tailored ambient experience and has the cutest vintage charm. It would be the perfect addition to a nursery or vintage/victorian style collection.
