LOT 100 - Hand-Blown Glass Necklace by Devon Houston

Description

This custom hand-blown glass piece is the first of the "Royalty" line, crafted by Devon Houston. This particular piece has more than 127 hand-blown glass beads with a custom design. The Royalty line is inspired by beaded and other assortments of historical jewelry of the royal class in various cultures. Mr. Houston started glass blowing in 2004, at 12 years old, professionally trained at Glass Roots in Newark, NJ. Glass Roots teaches entrepreneurship as well as the various aspects of glass art to the youth, and helping them cultivate the skills to run their own businesses or programs.
